Recognition of Prior Learning:

RPL is a method of assessment that considers whether a learner can demonstrate that they can meet the assessment requirements for a unit through knowledge, experience, understanding or skills that they already possess and do not need to develop through a course of learning.

In other words, they can proceed directly to assessment.

How will this work:

Assessment of a formative assessment of module wanting to be accredited in, includes POE and summative assessment to be submitted.

What will it cost?

Please make contact on for further information.

Please note international fee is for international assessment through IECAB

Please note assessments will be done at the Academy, all products and equipment used for assessment must be brought by student.
